

NEW AGE TECHNOLOGY CONSULTING TO SPONSOR
LAKELAND GREEN BUSINESS EXPO 2010

Firm Supports Local Sustainability Expo and Showcases ‘Green’ Business Communications Solutions

Bradenton, FLORIDA –December 28th, 2009 – New Age Technology Consulting, a premier provider of world-class, high quality telecommunications products and services today announced its participation as a major sponsor of the local sustainability exposition titled, GreenHome Wamalama Green Business Expo 2010. The event will be held at the Lakeland Center on Saturday, February 27th, 2010 and offer residents all over central Florida an opportunity to learn about the many local companies offering green, eco-friendly and other sustainable solutions for consumers, homes and business. New Age Technology Consulting, a Master Agent for the award-winning Star2Star Communications IP business telephone solution plans to showcase the tremendous energy efficiency and cost savings available to companies across the USA.

Mona Levinson, President of New Age Technology Consulting, stated, “All of us at New Age are thrilled to support the Lakeland Green Expo. We look forward to demonstrating to local area businesses that there is an effective communications solution that will help them save energy, better enable their workforce, while at the same time dramatically reduce their telecommunications expenses.”

The GreenHome Wamalama Green Business Expo will feature an array of local green product and service providers and other vendors of alternative energy and sustainability solutions. This event will provide informative and actionable content for both consumers and business owners on how they can save energy, save money and “green up” their homes and facilities.

The event will also feature a CFL recycling drive, live music, an Eco-Kidz Zone with learning activities, games and contests for children and plans to showcase green initiatives offered through local, city, county and Chamber of Commerce programs. Throughout the event will be a series of free sustainability presentations by the expo sponsors and other local experts that include informative topics on green job opportunities, alternative energy solutions, water conservation and new innovative green technologies.

Detailed sponsorship, exhibitor and attendee information is available on the green expo website, at www.greenhomewamalama.com and www.lakelandgreenexpo.com.
